INTERVIEW OPPORTUNITY/STORY IDEA

The 2012 Park City Film Music Festival is May 25-June 3, 2012.
Two-time Emmy-Award winning film composer and arranger Hummie Mann will be conducting seminars May 26 & May 27. He will be available for interviews prior to his seminars. Composer Conrad Pope will be in Park City to accept the 2012 Distinguished Artist Award.

- Interview Hummie Mann, who has collaborated with some of Hollywood's most celebrated directors in both theatrical and television films. Among his many projects are "Robin Hood: Men in Tights," "Year of the Comet," "Thomas and the Magic Railroad," "Speechless," "Addams Family Values," "Misery," "Sister Act," "Dying Young," and "For the Boys."
- Learn about the 3-session seminar Mann is presenting covering such topics as how to compose for film and basic orchestration and composition techniques.
- Find out ways people can introduce their music into film and television.
- Learn about the Park City Film Music Festival and some of the 200 films to be screened.
- View trailers from many of the feature films to be screened. View through YouTube under the name ParkCityFilmFestival or <http://www.youtube.com/ParkCityFilmFestival>.
- Visit with Leslie Harlow, Festival director, to learn about the 2012 Distinguished Artist Award to be given to composer Conrad Pope, whose most recent score was for "My Week with Marilyn."
- Interview Conrad Pope, composer and also orchestrator/arranger for John Williams and many other renowned film composers.
- Learn more about special concerts such as Zee Avi on May 26 and the Utah Pipe Band on June 2 during the Festival.
- Let the public know how to register for the seminar and get tickets for the festival, now in its 9th year.
